

Cash in on the Motion Picture Industry by Renting Your Vehicle, Home, Business, Boat or Equipment

LOS ANGELES, Calif., April 4, 2012 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – In an economy where people are working hard just to stay current with their bills, why not look toward the thriving Hollywood industry for extra income? Studio Find It, Inc. (www.StudioFindIt.com) offers a way for home, business, land, vehicle, heavy equipment, watercraft and aircraft owners to turn their assets into income by renting their items for cash to motion picture studios by simply registering with them online.

“A lot of people don’t realize that motion picture studios rent everything – in fact, productions are always on the lookout for new locations, picture car vehicles, background items or props that will make their series or film unique, so when they need something they typically send a scout out to find it,” said Claire Yankee, Vice-President of Studio Find It.

She adds, “Our company is an inverse approach to this process – instead of going out and looking for each item productions need to rent, we’re asking the public to come to us.”

Through a simple process of going to their website (www.StudioFindIt.com), registering for free and listing your item, you too can start making big bucks by renting your items to the motion picture industry.
