

ERP and Accounting Software Expert MicroAccounting Solutions Hires Jennifer Stucker as Software Consultant

RICHARDSON, Texas, April 17, 2012 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Texas-based ERP and accounting software expert MicroAccounting Solutions (www.microaccounting.com) announced today the hiring of Jennifer Stucker to serve as one of the senior programming consultants specializing in assisting clients using SQL Server, Sage ERP MAS 500 (becoming Sage 500 ERP), and Sage ERP MAS 90 and 200 (becoming Sage 100 ERP).

“Jennifer brings a wealth of ERP industry knowledge, SQL Server and Sage ERP MAS 500 software expertise to our consulting team,” said Lorrie Harris, partner at MicroAccounting. “Jennifer’s ability to identify the source of the client’s problem and quickly bring them a solution, contributes to our company focus of consistently surpassing client expectations.”

Stucker’s past experience with Sage ERP MAS 500 includes providing consulting services on behalf of reseller organizations and as a client and end user of the system. “In addition to selecting and customizing Sage ERP MAS 500,” explained Harris, “Jennifer, as an IT Manager at a former company, resolved some complicated challenges surrounding the company’s international connectivity issues.”

Stucker will work with other MicroAccounting Solutions Sage ERP MAS 500, Sage ERP MAS 200, and Sage ERP MAS 90 consultants to help their clients optimize current system functionality, extend the capabilities of the software, enhance reporting tools, and maximize the benefits of SQL Server. Much of the customization Stucker will conduct will be centered on business intelligence and analytics to help companies gain greater insights into their operations.

“Our company tagline is ‘we go further’ and we can only live up to that promise by having the best people to assist our clients,” said Harris. “Each member of our staff has been working in the field for over twelve years. Their knowledge of the software is second-to-none and they have the additional insight of having worked with hundreds of companies in a variety of industries.”
