

California Public School Children May Attend Bible Classes for One Hour a Week During the School Day!

ANAHEIM, Calif., July 23, 2012 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – You can be involved by attending the Annual California Released Time State Conference on August 4, 2012 at Calvary Chapel Costa Mesa. 7:30 a.m. – 5 p.m. with closing banquet to follow at 5:30 p.m. The event is co-Hosted by Santa Ana and Fullerton Released Time Programs.

Keynote Speaker, Dr. Jack Hayford will be the banquet speaker. Pastor Hayford ministries include Living Way Radio Program, The King's University, and Online Bible Study Courses. He is a celebrated writer of hundreds of hymns and choruses and former pastor of Church on the Way in Van Nuys, Calif.

The conference theme, "Fun in the Son, Running the Race Together" includes 12 workshops and the cost includes special luncheon with speaker, Cheryl Cota.

"Among my earliest recollections of religious instruction is the influence of dedicated Released Time Christian Education instructors. I am still pleased to affirm this timely and effective ministry," said Dr. Jack W. Hayford, Chancellor The King's College and Seminary.

Conference speaker Reverend Barney Kinard, president of Creative Children's Ministries, child evangelist, puppeteer and author, will bring inspiration and great resources to the event.
