

Adult Summer Camp is coming to Michigan at Camp Forever Fun

READING, Mich., Dec. 15, 2015 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Looking for an amazing holiday gift for your “grown-up” children aged 21 and up? Send them to summer camp again! Camp Forever Fun, Michigan’s premier all-inclusive summer camp for young adults, will run two sessions, Memorial Day weekend and Labor Day weekend, in 2016.

For four days and three nights we will sleep in bunk beds, wake up to the camp bells, and eat together in the mess hall. Load up on coffee; we’re going to play all day! You can expect morning yoga, dodge ball, giant canoe races, tug of war, climbing wall, relaxing at the waterfront, high ropes course, face painting, capture the flag – and much more!

At night it’s time to bring out kegs of really good beer (and some wine too). Get ready for campfire concerts, s’mores, talent shows, starlight beer hikes, and awesome nightly theme parties!

“So many young adults are seriously lacking fun in their lives,” says camp director Joel Paul Reisig. “I knew that I could change that for hundreds of people at once!”

Come with a partner or friends if you like, but most people come alone, night one is all about high-energy ice breakers.

“I promise when you wake up on the first morning camp will be loaded with your new friends!” There will of course also be beer. “I’m going to bring in kegs of really good craft beer, all brewed here in the Midwest. This isn’t a frat party, we’re not looking for obnoxious drunks; we’re a camp for fun young professionals who want to have the best long weekend of their lives. Age is just a number, camp is forever. Come away with me to never-never land.”

Camp Forever Fun is an all-inclusive experience where housing, food, alcohol, activities, new friends, and unlimited memories are all included in the price of your ticket. Registration is now open at <http://campforeverfun.com/>.
