

Amidst COVID-19 Outbreak International Network of Coaches Emerge to Support Their Communities and One Another

LOS ANGELES, Calif., March 18, 2020 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – “Right now, people need support. The coronavirus scare is bringing many people’s lives to a halt. Fear is taking over as everyone preps for the worst-case scenario. I understand people must ensure the safety of themselves and their families, but once the essential supplies are stocked, then what? Life must go on,” says Lauren Wallet, Founder of The Leverage Network (aka MALVA).

“We’ve got to keep our businesses thriving, our relationships intact, and our mindset healthy if we’re going to emerge from this moment of global panic as victors rather than victims. And I’m determined we do.”

Serial entrepreneur Lauren Wallet, also known as ‘The Creativity Coach,’ optimizes businesses and runs two online business schools, one for coaches and one for virtual assistants.

In late 2019, Wallett began to assemble an international network of coaches that could provide support to anyone under any circumstance. And now in 2020,

Leverage has launched to uplift personal and professional lives at a uniquely challenging time for humanity.

This diverse network offers to coach to everyone from successful CEOs to emerging business owners to creatives, and from brand new parents to couples on the verge of divorce. Leverage offers modalities as expansive as positive mindset coaching, hypnotherapy and EFT, and as down-to-earth as structure, accountability, branding, and PR.

The Leverage Network is based on hand selection, excellent credentials, and direct referrals. These coaches don't just look good on paper, they've all been personally vetted, and have experienced real-life results from coaches in the group. You know that if you work with one of these coaches, you're going to get the results you need and that if you have a niche problem or concern, they will refer you to someone who specializes in exactly that. Through Leverage you're not just accessing one coach, you're accessing a community of coaches to support you.

The Leverage Network outsource, hire, share testimonials and skill swap with one another. Referrals allow members to boost each other's businesses and create additional income, leveraging their own network of contacts to connect the right people to the right coaches.

Each Leverage member gives a referral fee based on the size of their offering. They share insight and income and prosper together. During its 6-month incubation period, Leverage generated tens of thousands of dollars in referrals amongst its members and elevated hundreds of lives.

"Businesses, partnerships, and personal endeavors must continue to grow, and Leverage is doing that, from America to Antigua. The Leverage Network offers coaching services via phone, Skype, FaceTime and Zoom, so it's simple for people anywhere in the world to get the support they need to thrive," says Wallett.
