“At ARMCO, being a leader in mortgage technology means more than providing the best software, for us it also includes providing quality intel at no additional cost,” said Phil McCall. “We’re happy that HousingWire recognizes the quality of our contributions, both for our paid solutions as well as the ones we deliver to the industry at zero cost.”

A recognized leader in its segment, ARMCO provides a wide range of mortgage quality control (QC), compliance and risk management technologies, and several zero-cost tools, which include (1) the Quarterly Mortgage QC Trends Report, which reports findings of all loans analyzed by ACES Audit Technology for a given quarter, (2) the Compliance NewsHub, an up-to-date reference library of all credit and compliance news.

Over half the country's top 20 mortgage lenders, and one third of the top 150 servicers and lenders, use ARMCO's technologies as the foundation of their risk management programs. The company's flagship product, ACES Audit Technology, has been documented to increase productivity 40 to 60 percent in the prefunding QC process, 75 to 100 percent in the post-closing QC process, and 50 to 75 percent in the servicing QC process.

"These companies hold the most innovative and impactful technology in mortgage finance, and continue to move markets forward with their new innovations," HousingWire Associate Editor Kelsey Ramírez said. "The future is bright for the mortgage industry, and it's because these companies continue to push the edge of what is possible."

"This year's Tech100 list is stronger than ever! We leveraged a highly-qualified selection committee to review all nominations and guide the selection process. This extra layer of expertise and practical exposure to selected companies was influential in helping HousingWire recognize the 100 fintech companies that deserve the honor of being named the greatest players in the game," said HousingWire Editor-in-Chief Jacob Gaffney. "We couldn't be more proud of the innovators and entrepreneurs behind these organizations and we hope you'll join us in celebrating their inclusion on the most prestigious list of its kind – the HW Tech100."
