

Art-In-Relation Features a Cavalcade of Talent in a Unique Two Night Engagement

LOS ANGELES, Calif., March 9, 2017 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Jonas Sills, founder and executive producer of Art-In-Relation (A.I.R.), announces a grand benefit performance of “Broadway-LA.” After three successful seasons of theater in the Long Beach area, Art-In-Relation made its move to Los Angeles with two acclaimed productions, “Andrew Lippa’s Wild Party” and “Frankenstein, A New Musical” in the fall of 2016. They were honored to receive rave reviews and an “Ovation Recommendation” from the LA Theater Alliance.

Art In Relation

From O! OVATION RECOMMENDED
Producer of the Wild Party

Art In Relation presents BROADWAY LA

a benefit concert for
Art-In-Relation & Create Now

Founder's Center
3281 W. 6th Street • Los Angeles, 90020

April 1st • 7PM
April 2nd • 5pm

Alan Palmer
Stage Director

Dr. James Lent
Music Director

Jonas Sills
Executive Producer

Production Team
Vanessa Hulme
Jonathan Tapanjim
Hedi Sills
Christopher M. Allport

Tickets
ArtInRelation.com
323.320.2898

VIP $25
Cast Reception to Follow

Create Now
Helping youth find their voice through arts mentoring and education

Send2Press® Newswire

“Broadway-LA” is a performance of musical theater favorites in the arena style 1200 seat concert venue of the Founder’s Center for Positive Spirituality (www.foundersla.org). The event will be performed by a cast of 70 adults and youth as well as an instrumental combo. Mr Sills is thrilled with the evolution of this production as it combines veteran professionals with Broadway credits with up and coming artists, as well as developing youth.

“The auditions for this production included the most talented group of performers that we as a creative team have ever seen in the Los Angeles area, and I am so honored to have so many of them join us for this upbeat, exciting show," says Sills.

The show will feature an exciting selection of Broadway musical selections from shows throughout the eras of the Broadway stage. A.I.R. aims to bring the polish, excitement and pizzazz of a night at the theater in New York to Los Angeles audiences.

The production team includes Broadway and Off-Broadway veteran, Alan Palmer, as well as Dr. James Lent, professor of piano at UCLA and coach at American Musical Dramatic Academy. Joining us as publicist is VanNessa Hulme, while rounding out the team is Johnathan Tujanjim as stage manager, Christopher Allport, production support/design, and Heidi Sills as production assistant and box office.

Alan Palmer notes, "This performance is not the same everyday selections, but an evening of rarely heard Broadway musical gems."

A.I.R. is keeping with its mission of presenting lesser known pieces, combined with family style entertainment.

Proudly becoming a sponsored non-profit, this performance is the perfect event to further Art-In-Relation's goal of reaching out to the community, and working with charitable organizations. A portion of the proceeds will be given to Createnow.org, a charity which provides arts education, excursions, and enrichment to underprivileged and other youth and families around Los Angeles.

Art-In-Relation will be providing limited number of donation based tickets, as well as reasonably priced $25 VIP tickets which will include a reception with the cast, wine and hors d'ouvres.

Performances will be held April 1, 2017 at 7 p.m. and April 2 at 5 p.m. at Founder's Center, 3281 W 6th Street, Los Angeles, CA 90020.

Tickets are available on a first come first served basis by calling Heidi at 323-320-2898 or going to <http://www.artinrelation.com> or check us out on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/artinrelation/>.