Several members of civil trial law firm Shapiro Goldman Babboni Fernandez & Walsh took part in the Manasota Trial Lawyers Board Dinner and CLE Seminar.

Held at the Polo Grill in Lakewood Ranch Florida, the event featured 2.0 CLE credited seminar that focused on accident reconstruction entitled, “How to Effectively Work with Accident Reconstruction to Better Present Your Clients’ Case.”

Guest speakers Rick Swope of Swope Reconstruction Corporation and Brian Pfeifer of BEC Consulting, informed the audience on how to utilize the latest methods of accident reconstruction to better represent clients in personal injury lawsuits.

The event drew attorneys and legal professionals from law firms around west, central and southwest Florida, including several partners from Shapiro Goldman Babboni Fernandez & Walsh. In attendance were Manasota Trial Lawyers Board founder Bernard F. Walsh of the Bradenton office of Shapiro Goldman Babboni Fernandez & Walsh, M. David Shapiro founding partner of Shapiro Goldman Babboni Fernandez & Walsh, and Stephan Fernandez from the Sarasota Office of Shapiro Goldman Babboni Fernandez & Walsh.

Attendees of the seminar earned 2.0 CLE (Continuing Legal Education) credits. Florida attorneys are required by the Florida Bar Association to earn 33 CLE credits over three years to remain a member in good standing.

In addition to the seminar, an open forum discussion panel took place allowing for attendees to delve deeper into to topic of using accident reconstruction methods and technology during personal injury cases.

The Manasota Trial Lawyers Boards meet & greet and dinner/seminar promoted networking and collaboration between attorneys to stay current on legal issues to better serve their clients needs.

Attorney David Shapiro had this to say about the event, "While Florida has a variety of legal organizations such as the Florida Justice Association, the Manasota Trial Lawyers Board helps to give more voice and influence from the local Sarasota-Bradenton area."

Attorney Stephen Fernandez commented, "With so many aspects of personal injury law important events like the MTLB's seminar or the FJA's workhorse seminar give attorneys the opportunity to enhance knowledge on a wide variety of topics and be exposed to the latest tools and techniques that would be more difficult otherwise. It's heartening to see so many attorneys take advantage of the event and become better prepared to represent their clients."

Attorney Bernard Walsh added, "As founder of the MTLB, it is nice to see my fellow partners participate. It's great to see so many of the area's attorneys come together in a supportive manner to help strengthen the Florida justice system."
