

Auto Body Repair Business Redefined in Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Jan. 25, 2016 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – The need for a decent auto repair in Los Angeles is at high demand considering the number of vehicle registrations within the last 5 years (29.7 million according to LA Almanac). Anyone who has prior experience in getting a car repaired knows the typical auto body shop atmosphere and how these shops operate. One would notice that the majority of the shops are pretty much the same, unless they run into Pristine Automotive Center Inc, an auto body repair shop of Silver Lake in Los Angeles.

You automatically notice the difference upon entering into the cute, comfy mini lobby area. Equipped with a mini fridge full of water, a TV and nice chairs, the waiting area is there for customers to relax and connect to the free internet while they wait for their cars to be serviced. This comfort is indeed very pleasant but is nothing compared to the awesome staff and the level of service that Pristine's customers get to enjoy. All customers are given a super star service at very reasonable price ranges. Honesty is big at Pristine and is the basis of the business growth and continued customer satisfaction.

The owner of this body shop, Aram Manoyan, is a very nice guy and a very successful businessman who is mainly concentrated around the service businesses in the auto industry. He mentioned that the main ingredient to the success of his shop is the mentality that he instills in all his employees.

"If you have the right mindset, which in this business is simple: Serve your clients with total honesty and give them the best service they will experience and you will gain their trust and satisfaction. You cannot go wrong," Aram said. "There is too much of unfair business practices in Los Angeles auto repair industry these days and people are aware and tired of that. That is the true reason that our business model is recognized and valued by our own clients. This is what actually brings us the most valuable referrals."

Aram has another auto body repair shop in Los Angeles, Calif. where he provides an equal level of super star service. This location has actually attracted several distinguished Hollywood celebrities who will not be identified here due to privacy reasons.

Aram's shops are not the typical body shop – piles of mess and nowhere to sit-down – and the work they do is very high-end and by very respected body-men and mechanics in the industry.

To top it all off, as evidence of the pristine service that Aram's team delivers, one can checkout Pristine's 5-star Yelp reviews. So save time shopping around for an auto repair estimate and head to Pristine Automotive where auto repair is redefined to the highest level.
