“We are pleased to have so many individuals that wish to serve as Mayor and on the City Council. It’s not easy running for public office; we want to give all those interested an opportunity to speak to the public and the elected Precinct Committee Officers,” says Adam Frugoli, Chairman of the Issues and Legislative Actions Committee.

All Forums will be broadcast using Facebook Live from the Party’s Facebook page, @BonnevilleGOP.

Questions will be taken during the broadcast using the hashtag #IdahoFallsVotes.

About The Bonneville County Republican Central Committee:

The Bonneville County Republican Central Committee is a political entity created by Idaho statute that has 51 Precincts. Each precinct elects its Precinct Committee Officer, who votes on the platform and other topics at the County and State Party level.
