

The British Are Coming! UK's Unsung Lilly Takes Over The Mint in Los Angeles for Better Vision for Children Charity Fundraiser

LOS ANGELES, Calif., June 19, 2014 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – The British are coming! The British are coming! There will be a British invasion at The Mint, Los Angeles' legendary cultural enclave for live music, on Saturday, July 19 when Global Journey Media presents popular UK artists, the singing duo, Unsung Lilly, in a benefit concert performance for Better Vision For Children (BVC).

Master keyboardist and producer, Wayne Vaughn, of Earth, Wind & Fire fame, is producing the show, adding his special brand of funk to the English equation. Performance painter Norton Wisdom, known for his spontaneously painted imagery, will also capture the sounds on canvas during the evening.

The Mint is located at 6010 West Pico Blvd in Los Angeles, and show time is at 9:15 p.m. A VIP after party with the musicians and the BVC members will follow the show featuring DJ Level UP in the Mint's private event room.

Unsung Lilly is a quirky new band from the United Kingdom, fronted by the stunning vocal talents of Sera and Frankie. With their mix of stylistic influences, the two, alongside their band, have been recognized overseas as a modern day Fleetwood Mac. Pairing the musicality of old school Maroon 5, with the atmospheric vibe of John Mayer, combined with the quirkiness of Paloma Faith and Tori Amos, Unsung Lilly offers a wicked cocktail of musical ingredients.

Their visit to the states finds them stirring things up a bit, as they engage the groove master, Wayne Vaughn, in their musical mix.

Wayne Vaughn is heralded as one of the music industry's consummate musician/writer/ producers. A brilliant pianist, he has penned numerous classics for the legendary Earth Wind & Fire including "Something Special," "I Wanna Be with You" and "Let's Groove Tonight." Vaughn will bring along some of the music industry's best session players to create a musical kaleidoscope specifically for Unsung Lilly!

The entire evening will benefit Better Vision for Children (<http://www.eyeseebetter.org/>), a non-profit charity, endorsed by Stevie Wonder, which has for 27 years, provided free comprehensive vision screening for underprivileged children to prevent and cure partial or total blindness resulting from, or related to, amblyopia (Lazy Eye), Autism and Eye Cancer.
