Situated an hour north of Buckhead in Atlanta, this custom country estate was carefully designed and meticulously engineered. The five bedroom 12,000+ sq. ft. stone mansion boasts unparalleled detail with no expense spared, from the rare red slate roof to the reclaimed wooden beams and wide plank floors.

The spectacular property and residence are fastidiously maintained to flawless perfection, with luxurious A-Lister features while radiating a friendly cozy feel. Among the 446 acres of rolling hills, there is a variety of lovely scenery to appreciate: from a lake, to natural waterfalls, to winding rivers. All of the previously mentioned can be enjoyed from the home's extensive wrap-around patios.

Among the fascinating features of this estate and grounds is the one-of-a-kind showroom that is considered one of the world's best muscle car garages in company with those owned by Jay Leno, Seinfeld and Ralph Lauren. It boasts 40,000 sq. ft. and is designed to showcase 70 parked cars. This unbelievable climate-controlled steel exterior showroom was exceptionally planned for the ultimate car connoisseur to display collection cars in a museum-like setting. Within this distinct massive dealership facade car barn, many other incomparable spaces exist including a 1900's style saloon, a ticket booth, a massive high-end movie theater, a gas station replica, and classy old-fashioned themed soda and barber shops.
