

California Mortgage Bankers Association Names The Compliance Group President Annemaria Allen to its Board of Directors

SAN MARCOS, Calif., April 26, 2013 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – The Compliance Group, Inc. (TCG), a leading mortgage compliance services provider, is pleased and privileged to announce that the California Mortgage Bankers Association has recently named its CEO and president Annemaria Allen a director.

Allen is a mortgage compliance veteran whose experience spans more than two decades, including on-the-ground experience as the chief compliance officer for PSB Lending, a nationwide multi-billion dollar mortgage servicing company, prior to launching The Compliance Group in 2000.

“Being named as a CMBA Director is an exceptionally meaningful professional accomplishment to any individual with a sincere commitment to the mortgage industry and to the power of grassroots coordination,” said Annemaria Allen, CEO and president of The Compliance Group. “In my case, I’d have to admit that this honor is of a personal nature as well because I have had what you might refer to as ‘a calling’ to serve the mortgage industry.”

“Annemaria has been unabashedly passionate about mortgage compliance throughout her career, serving on the CMBA’s Mortgage Quality Assurance and Compliance committee, publishing compliance and licensing articles through industry associations and leading trade media,” said CMBA executive director Susan Milazzo.

“The mortgage industry remains a driving contributor to the larger national economy,” she said. “Now that the element of compliance has been restored to its rightful role as a centerpiece of mortgage origination, investment and servicing, it is an industry of vibrant opportunity.”
