

Callie Walston joins Four Seasons Compassion for Life Development Department

FLAT ROCK, N.C., Jan. 15, 2014 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Four Seasons Compassion for Life announces the addition of Callie Walston, philanthropy coordinator, to its development department.

A lifetime resident of Asheville, Buncombe County, Walston holds a 2006 bachelor's degree in communications from Appalachian State University, and is a 2002 graduate of North Buncombe High School. She is a member of Rotary Club of Asheville, and currently chairs the club's annual foundation fundraiser. She attends Grace Covenant Church, Asheville.

"A natural relationship builder and communicator, Callie offers her significant experience in marketing, promotions and business development, and non-profit volunteerism," says Derek Groves, vice president of sustainable resources. "We are delighted to welcome her to our team."

Walston remains inspired by the opportunity to make lasting contributions to the community by helping patients improve their quality of life in the face of serious illness or at end of life.

"I'm a pebble in the pond," she says. "I'm just here to do the work, and I hope to make a lasting impression."

Four Seasons is a non-profit hospice and palliative care organization led by a dedicated team of health care professionals, social workers, spiritual care professionals and volunteers. Four Seasons currently serves patients in Henderson, Buncombe, Macon, Jackson, Transylvania and surrounding counties. For information on Four Seasons, visit <http://www.fourseasonscfl.org/>.
