

Capital Automotive Group Runs ‘Share the Awareness’ Breast Cancer Campaign

RALEIGH, N.C., Oct. 16, 2019 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – The Capital Automotive Group has chosen to bring awareness to the breast cancer topic for the month of October, 2019. October has been deemed “Breast Cancer Awareness Month” and the Capital Automotive Group will be participating in the program, not only to bring awareness to the plight of those affected by the disease, but also, to generously donate a portion of their proceeds for the month to their local Susan G. Komen affiliate.

Send2Press® Newswire

This foundation continues to shed light upon the effects of breast cancer and help women learn early detection, become educated about the disease, and to provide support services.

The specific Capital stores that will participate in the event include: Capital Ford Raleigh, Capital Chevrolet, Capital Ford Rocky Mount, Capital Ford Hillsborough, and Capital Chrysler Dodge Jeep RAM. Each store shares the vision for this campaign and will participate by donating a portion of their proceeds.

“I’m pleased to be involved in a great cause that, in the long run, I believe will benefit women's lives as research continues to find the cure," commented Scott Johnson, General Manager of Capital Ford. "We just want to do our part to help."

The Susan G. Komen Foundation is currently the largest and highest funded breast cancer organization in the United States. To date, they have invested 2.9 billion dollars in ground-breaking research while continuing to provide outreach programs to benefit community health and have launched other life-saving programs in over 60 countries.

For more information on Capital Automotive Group, please visit their website at: <https://capitalautogroup.com/>

For more information on the Susan G. Komen Foundation, please visit their website at: <https://ww5.komen.org/>