

Cash for Candy: Spodak Dental Group to Collect Halloween Candy for Troops Overseas – Third Year in a Row

DELRAY BEACH, Fla., Nov. 5, 2014 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – This Halloween, Spodak Dental Group wants to help you earn cash for your candy and support our troops. All trick-or-treaters are encouraged to bring their excess unopened and uneaten candy to the office and receive $1 per pound (five pounds maximum).

Candy will be collected today through Friday, November 14, 2014 and will be shipped to U.S. Military deployed in combat overseas as part of Operation Gratitude.

Global sugar consumption for children increases by about 2 percent annually and currently sits at 50 million tons per year, which means parents need to be sure their children's teeth are being cared for more than ever. Candy, as well as hurting children's teeth, can lead to hyperactivity and weight gain.

"This is our third year participating in this great cause and there are so many positive reasons to participate," said Dr. Craig Spodak, owner of Spodak Dental Group. "I look forward to helping kids maintain a healthy lifestyle with minimal cavities, and being able to show our support to our troops during the holiday season."
