

Charleston Soccer League Adopts TeamSnap for Clubs and Leagues

BOULDER, Colo., Sept. 12, 2012 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – TeamSnap, a mobile and web service used by a million and a half players, parents and coaches to manage sports teams and leagues, today announced that the Charleston Soccer League (CSL) is now using TeamSnap for Clubs and Leagues. Hundreds of sports clubs, leagues, and associations around the world use TeamSnap to register players, make team assignments, coordinate schedules, and much more.

CSL serves youth players from pre-kindergarten through high school and is using TeamSnap to effectively communicate with its administrators, players, coaches and parents. In addition, CSL has adopted TeamSnap to automate back-office tasks, freeing up administrators to focus on running the league and working with players.

“TeamSnap allows me to quickly and easily correspond with everyone in the league, either as one group or as teams,” said Daphne Griffin, a CSL board member. “It is far easier than email and it logs messages, so I can refer back to how and what I have communicated. In addition, TeamSnap takes the pressure off of maintaining Excel rosters. With easy team switching, availability monitoring and customizable fields, keeping track of an entire league is effortless. TeamSnap is ALWAYS there to help. From the simplest of questions to the trickiest ... their response time is second to none.”
