Children First, an early education charitable organization serving the most vulnerable children in Sarasota and Manatee Counties, was noted a by the National Head Start Association as a “Program of Excellence” that ranks in the top one percent of all Head Start programs nationwide.

Attorney David Shapiro was honored for his five years on the Board of Children First. He has held multiple positions throughout the years including, Treasurer and Vice President.

Attorney Shapiro offered this comment about Children First: “Children First is an amazing organization that has helped countless children in low income families through early learning, nutrition and health. They also provide valuable education and support to the families to create the best environment for the children after school and throughout their formative years. I am so honored to be a part of such a great organization and a magnificent group of hard working and dedicated individuals.”

Philip Tavill, President & CEO of Children First, presented Attorney Shapiro with an elegant glass Starfish which symbolized the beautiful story of the man who threw back as many starfish as he could after they had washed ashore. “When questioned why he worked so hard only to make a little difference to the vast numbers of starfish, he picked up a starfish and through into the sea, proclaiming, it made a difference to that one,” Tavill said.
