

ChosenLawyers.com is Determined to make 'Justice for All' a Reality

OJAI, Calif., July 14, 2015 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – “ChosenLawyers.com reaffirms its commitment to making ‘Equal Justice Under Law’ available to all people regardless of race, religion, gender, national origin or status,” proclaims Paymon Barati-Darmian, attorney and founder.

It is a well-known fact that our Justice System is highly complex: prohibitively intimidating and exorbitantly expensive.

Political partisanship, overt/covert racism, and corporate pandering cause significant challenges to our criminal justice. This is why over 2 million people are incarcerated; most for minor offenses. Yes, 1 in 4 prisoners on Earth reside in “the land of the free and the home of the brave.” Colossal costs and misery for the people; massive profits for corporations.

Our civil justice, which is the only place an individual could challenge mega corporations for putting profit before safety; committing fraud; killing or injuring millions of people, callously and methodically has been transformed into a club to bludgeon the people. Tort reform is a painful example. Add to this equation corporate power lawyers who clog the system with frivolous Strategic Lawsuits Against Public Participation (SLAPP); then we would understand why an estimated 71 percent of people who need legal help, never seek it.

Fortunately, there is no challenge big enough to withstand the power of compassion and creative deeds. ChosenLawyers.com is the progeny of such a resolute stance.

Most law firms are small local businesses. They must invest substantial amount of time and money on viable communication campaigns to find clients: a complicatedly expensive process that most lawyers cannot afford. ChosenLawyers.com carefully chooses trusted, highly competent and compassionate lawyers as Joint Communication Members; then it combines their limited resources through leveraging, to implement ethical and creative communication methods that benefit all. This process saves Chosen Lawyers considerable time and money, which affords them to provide some FREE legal services to the helpless and the voiceless.

WIN-WIN SOLUTIONS:

Our Chosen Lawyers win by getting valuable clients affordably. Clients win by having trusted competent one-stop-solutions for all their legal needs, LIVE! The justice system wins by becoming less clogged, and more available to people with genuine legal problems.

Naturally, we need your support to make “Justice for All,” a reality. Thus if you encounter any legal problem or wish to blow the whistle on injustice, anywhere, make <http://www.ChosenLawyers.com/> your communication platform. If you are a lawyer who possesses personal courage and intellectual insight to do the right thing – when no one is looking – we are ready to mark your territory, proudly! If you are a journalist committed to propagation of truth and justice, help us spread the news across the country and around the world.

Justice is the very thread that weaves together the tapestry of human civilization: defending it is everyone's business; because as Dr. King Jr. proclaimed: "Injustice anywhere is a threat to Justice, everywhere!"
