Cloudvirga was recognized for its digital mortgage POS platforms, which uniquely combine a compelling consumer experience with automation that helps lenders cut their loan production costs and close loans faster.

"Tackling the mortgage cost-to-produce problem requires new ways of thinking and technology that enables new ways of doing business," said Cloudvirga Co-Founder Kyle Kamrooz. "We're incredibly proud to be at the forefront of a digital sea change in mortgage technology as one of the new names on this year's HousingWire Tech 100."

“Companies in the 2018 Tech100 represent the leading edge of solutions and services that will propel mortgage companies toward success,” said HousingWire Magazine Editor Sarah Wheeler.

“These companies provide innovative solutions and are moving the housing finance industry forward as technology rapidly changes how the landscape operates,” added HousingWire Online Editor Caroline Basile.
