

Crime Scene Clean Up Parent Company Announces Acquisition of 3 BioHazard Firms

PATCHOGUE, N.Y., Jan. 19, 2016 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Prestige Worldwide Group, parent company of CrimeSceneCleanup.com, announced today that it has acquired KRI Crime Scene Cleanup of Texas, Crime Scene Inc. of Maryland and Crime Scene Clean LLC of Texas, three of the largest biohazard firms in the U.S. This deal marks one of the largest of its kind in the crime scene cleanup industry and now makes CrimeSceneCleanup.com the leading firm in the business. They now offer services from New York to California and from Texas to Michigan.

“With the purchase of these three major competitors, we see a clear window for a potential public offering in the near future,” said James Michel, president of CrimeSceneCleanup.com. “We expect to see our revenue grow over 60 percent and to exceed 10 million this coming year. This is a very exciting time for us, establishing such a large footprint in this niche industry. A violent crime or suicide occurs every 20 seconds in the U.S. We’re now set up to provide help anywhere, anytime,” added Michel.

Crime Scene Clean Up provides comprehensive crime scene cleanup services after a homicide, suicide, criminal activity and accidents. They also are tops in the business when it comes to blood cleaning, hoarding environment restoration, infectious disease decontamination, odor removal, mold remediation, meth lab decontamination, tear gas removal as well as water, sewerage, and flood cleanup.

The crime scene cleaners at CrimeSceneCleanup.com are biohazard cleanup experts when it comes to disposing of toxic materials. They are experienced and trained in handling the full gamut of hazardous waste, all of which require particular specifications for proper removal and remediation. When they are finished at a crime scene, their teams leave a location spotlessly clean and safe for inhabitants.

The purchase of the three additional crime scene cleanup businesses will now help Prestige Worldwide Group and CrimeSceneCleanup.com extend their long list of cleaning and remediation services to clients throughout the United States.
