With its very similar mission, this first event for The Black Suit Initiative is designed to celebrate men in the Triad area of North Carolina who are making a positive impact in its community and who are also positive role models for the community's young men; hence, the reason Chris Roberts has also been invited not only as a sponsor but also as one of the very first models for "The Grand Entrance."

A graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and of Campbell

University School of Law, Chris Roberts is the President and Chief Executive Officer of Crumley Roberts, Attorneys at Law. He and his wife of more than 25 years Kimberly are also the founders of The Roberts Center for Leadership, Education, Advancement and Development which provides scholarships as well as leadership and wellness opportunities that support and empower individuals throughout North Carolina, South Carolina and beyond. He and Kimberly have two sons, Matthew and Eli, and enjoy traveling as a family. Chris also enjoys playing golf, fishing, hiking, working as a Boy Scout Leader, performing numerous community activities and being a member of Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church.

As stated by Evianna Ross, Founder of The Sparrow's Nest, "Putting on our first major fundraising event is scary. Having the support from people like Chris Roberts, President/CEO of Crumley Roberts, Attorneys at Law is reassuring. The Black Suit Initiative is proud and honored to have Crumley Roberts, Attorneys at Law as one of our presenting sponsors for our Charitable Fashion Show, 'The Grand Entrance.' We're also excited Chris Roberts accepted the invitation to be a model in our fashion show!"
