

Cutting-Edge Commercial Roofing Company Comes to Nashville

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 11, 2019 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – J. Smucker Contracting is expanding their service area to Nashville, Tennessee as a way to provide the business community with an innovative alternative to full roof replacement. The roof restoration services offered by J. Smucker Contracting cost approximately 50% less than traditional roof replacement and come backed with a non-prorated 18-year warranty.

Send2Press® Newswire

These advantages have made J. Smucker Contracting the in-demand roofing company in Central Pennsylvania.

Jake Smucker, Owner of J. Smucker Contracting, remarks, "We chose to expand to Tennessee because we saw an opportunity to provide business owners a service that they didn't have access to before. Plus, Nashville is just a great area all around!"

As a way to introduce this new service to Tennessee businesses, J. Smucker Contracting is offering a $1,000 cash rebate for business roof restoration work that exceeds 5,000 square feet – available until the end of 2019. In addition, J. Smucker Contracting always performs free roof inspections for any new potential clients.

These cost-saving roofing services can be used on flat roofs of all sizes and material types.
