

Deacon Jones Acquires Dan Wise Chevrolet of La Grange Dealership

LA GRANGE, N.C., March 9, 2018 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Deacon Jones began acquiring the Dan Wise Chevrolet of La Grange dealership beginning on March 1, 2018. Dan Wise commented that, “For 37+ years the community in and around LaGrange have allowed me and my staff the pleasure of serving the transportation and servicing needs of the area’s families. It has been personally gratifying and an honor. In considering the future of the Dealership and its employees, I am delighted that it, and they, will become a part of the Deacon Jones Auto Group – a locally owned and operated group that shares our core values and attention to Customer service.”

“They will continue our commitments to the community, predominantly with the same folks here, while providing some significant advantages because of their size and resources-such as inventory selection, access to lenders, and expansion of service and parts availability.”

Deacon Jones dealerships provide their customers with the commitment to exceed their expectations and to deliver the best service possible, while making automobile buying an enjoyable experience. With a reputation for exceptional sales and service, they continue to be a leader in the Raleigh area's competitive auto industry.

"The motto of our dealership has always been, 'We Treat People the Way They Would Like To Be Treated,' and we intend to keep that commitment with this new endeavor," said Jonathan Johnson, the new General Manager of Deacon Jones Chevrolet of La Grange. "Dan Wise and his staff operated for all of these years with that level of commitment, and we are delighted to continue that tradition with his staff."

Johnathan Johnson will be the new General Manager and the location of the new Deacon Jones Chevrolet of La Grange will be 6595 US Highway 70 West, La Grange, NC 28551.
