

Deacon Jones Family of Dealerships Celebrates the Opening of Deacon Jones Kia

GOLDSBORO, N.C., Oct. 22, 2019 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Deacon Jones Auto Group is pleased to announce the opening of its newest location. Deacon Jones Kia will open its doors on Monday, October 21, 2019.

Send2Press® Newswire

Deacon Jones has been selling Kia's in Goldsboro for over 30 years and this newly designed dealership will be replete with state-of-the-art equipment that can service any vehicle while in the service lane, along with a digitally testing alignment machine located in the service bay. Comfortably cooled and heated, the overall shop will be a welcoming place to wait while the customer's vehicle is getting serviced. Complementary snacks, coffee, and water will be available to patrons, along with free WIFI and convenient, individual workstations. Charging stations will also be available to all electric cars 24/7.

"These are certainly exciting times for our Deacon Jones dealerships, and we are anticipating a fruitful outcome for our new Deacon Jones Kia store," commented Ken Jones, owner of Deacon Jones Auto Group. "We're still amazed at the incredible expansion of our auto group and we look forward to even more growth in our future.”

The dealership plans on doing a Chamber of Commerce and an official grand celebration later this year. This location is the fourth ground up investment made by the Deacon Jones Family to complete the all new state of art Deacon Jones AutoPlex of Goldsboro. Deacon Jones is also on its third remodeling project, updating our stores in Clinton, N.C.

The new Kia location will be: 3313 McLain Street, Goldsboro, NC 27534.
