Deacon Jones Auto Group is committed to continued investments and innovation in the auto industry ensuring our customers and communities have the most competitive products, technology and vehicle electrification options available. Deacon Jones has been an automotive business in Goldsboro for over 40 years and this newly designed dealership will be filled with state-of-the-art equipment that can service any vehicle while in the service lane.

Comfortably cooled and heated, the overall service delivery area will be a welcoming place to drive your car in and drop off or wait. Complimentary snacks, coffee, and water will be available to patrons, along with free WIFI and convenient, individual workstations. Charging stations will also be available to all electric cars 24/7.

“These are certainly exciting times for our Deacon Jones Family of Dealerships and we are anticipating lasting relationships with the communities we serve and live,” commented Ken Jones, owner of Deacon Jones Auto Group. “We’re still amazed at the incredible expansion of our auto group and we look forward to even more growth in our future.”

The dealership plans on hosting a Chamber of Commerce and official re-grand opening and ribbon cutting on January 12th, 2022 at 12 noon. The completion of this remolded location is the fifth addition and multimillion-dollar investment by the Deacon Jones Family to complete the all new state of art Deacon Jones AUTOPLEX of Goldsboro.

The Hyundai location is: 304 N. Oak Forest Rd, Goldsboro, NC 27534.
