

DocMagic Integrates eSign Technology with MortgageHippo's Digital Lending Platform

TORRANCE, Calif., June 5, 2018 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – DocMagic, Inc., the premier provider of fully-compliant loan document preparation, regulatory compliance and comprehensive eMortgage services, and MortgageHippo, a Fintech-driven digital lending platform, announced a seamless eSign integration between their two platforms.

Send2Press® Newswire

This integration enables MortgageHippo's lender customers to provide borrowers with the ability to electronically sign documents at any stage of the mortgage process, from point-of-sale to closing. eSignatures eliminate the time constraints and accessibility limitations of manual signatures, thus providing lenders with a faster mortgage process and reduced origination costs. The eSignature process that MortgageHippo provides via DocMagic is as legal and valid as a manual process using printed and wet signed documents.

MortgageHippo provides mortgage lenders with a comprehensive suite of white-labeled web and mobile-ready products that enable a modern, efficient, secure and fully online borrower experience from the point-of-sale to closing.

Lenders can order disclosures directly from their loan origination systems (LOS), most of which are already integrated with DocMagic. MortgageHippo then provides eDelivery of the disclosures to the consumer via the MortgageHippo borrower portal for compliant eSigning using DocMagic's eSign technology. This service is available for initial disclosures, Loan Estimates (LE), Closing Disclosures (CD) and closing documents.

"If lenders want to stay competitive, they need the tools to satisfy borrowers' growing appetite for an easy and robust digital experience," said Joe Dahleen, EVP and CSO at MortgageHippo. "MortgageHippo's integration with DocMagic allows us to provide those tools to lenders by offering eSignature capability throughout the entire mortgage process."

"We are pleased to partner with MortgageHippo and offer our mutual lender clients a strong digital mortgage point-of-sale solution that integrates tightly with our platform and LOS partners," said Steve Ribultan, director of business development at DocMagic. "Integrating with MortgageHippo is yet another step that DocMagic is taking to deliver on the promise of achieving a truly paperless digital mortgage process."
