

DocMagic Named to HousingWire Magazine's Annual HW TECH100 List

TORRANCE, Calif., March 17, 2015 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – DocMagic, Inc., the premier provider of fully-compliant loan document preparation, compliance, eSign and eDelivery solutions, announced that HousingWire magazine designated the company to its 2015 HW TECH100(TM) list. The list honors the 100 most innovative technology companies serving the U.S. mortgage finance and real estate industries.

HousingWire states that more than 250 companies were evaluated by HousingWire editors for the 2015 program, which looks at technology innovation along six different categories: uniqueness of solution, growth, market influence, market potential, elegance of implementation, and “something else entirely” – a catch-all for disruption and other factors that drive innovation.

“This year we were struck by the level of innovation we saw, with 40 new additions to the HW TECH100,” stated Jacob Gaffney, executive editor at HousingWire. “That speaks to how much change is taking place in the mortgage industry overall right now; we’re seeing a lot of market disruption, and technology providers are clearly taking advantage of the opportunity that creates.”

DocMagic has grown at an enviable rate over the past year, adding new staff, signing marquee clients, acquiring eSignSystems and Doc-Tech Corporation, and working closely with the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) on its eClosing pilot program, among other significant projects.

The company’s future growth plans are aggressive. They include penetrating new markets, developing into a single-source eServices provider that is the nucleus of the eMortgage process, and continuing to guide the mortgage industry to adopt paperless origination and closing processes.

“We’ve had some major accomplishments and company milestones in the last year and are pleased that the editorial team at HousingWire has recognized our innovations and industry contributions,” said Dominic Iannitti, president and CEO of DocMagic. “Making the HW TECH100 list is the direct result of the amazing people we have working for us, their passion for and commitment to developing leading technology solutions and providing unparalleled customer support.”
