

Doug Trimbach Honored by Dayton Business Journal in the 2012 '40 Under 40' Awards

TIPP CITY, Ohio, June 6, 2012 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – The Dayton Business Journal named Doug Trimbach as one of the 2012 40 Under 40 award winners, honoring the region's up-and-coming leaders at a banquet on May 17, 2012. Trimbach is the Vice President of Lighting Optimizers, USA, a one-year-old company based in Tipp City, Ohio.

The DBJ program, now in its 15th year, is one of the most sought-after awards in the Dayton region, and more nominations were received this year than ever before. The nominations were judged based on business leadership, community leadership, and career path.

About Doug Trimbach:

Trimbach, a Dayton native, is an experienced lighting engineer and auditor with more than seven years in the lighting industry. He is a member of the U.S. Green Building Council and the Association of Energy Engineers and has a B.A. Degree in Philosophy from UNC Pembroke.

Stephanie Smith, President of Lighting Optimizers, USA, stated, "We are extremely pleased to have someone with Doug's capabilities, experience, and character leading the company's efforts to provide energy efficient lighting and materials to customers throughout the United States. He has driven our company's efforts to achieve more than $1.5 million in annual sales revenue and assisting customers in saving more than $200,000 in annual energy costs. Doug has been instrumental in the growth of the company, serving as a mentor to new employees and contractors. During 2011, Doug was personally responsible for creating ten jobs and taking the company from a local business to a national company. Lighting Optimizers, USA recently performed an energy audit at Quantico in Virginia, solely due to Doug's reputation and skill as a lighting engineer."
