Sponsored by 20/20 Vision for Success Coaching and Mortgage Women Magazine, the award recognizes women in the mortgage industry who have helped others by sharing their vision and displaying professional and personal development that is inspiring, as well as leading the way amongst peers and colleagues.

Karwowski has been at the helm of Get Credit Healthy, a technology company that has developed a platform and cultivated a network of non-profit partners, with the goal of transforming unqualified applicants into creditworthy borrowers. Through Karwowski's leadership since 2009, the company has evolved from a credit education and remediation business into an innovative fin-tech enterprise that helps lenders access a previously untapped market. Get Credit Healthy has recently gained traction and industry recognition while maintaining its mission to leave no lead behind and simultaneously help consumers achieve financial success.

Karwowski joins an elite group of 50 women who will be honored at the summit.
