

Energy Optimizers, USA, named DP&L Channel Partner of the Year

TIPP CITY, Ohio, April 14, 2016 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Energy Optimizers, USA, has been selected as a Dayton Power & Light Channel Partner of the Year for 2015.

DP&L's Channel Partners are businesses that are familiar with the DP&L rebate process and can assist businesses, public organizations and homeowners with selecting and installing energy efficient equipment. Energy Optimizers, USA, earned the coveted Channel Partner of the Year award for consulting on 41 energy reduction projects during 2015, ultimately helping DP&L customers save more than 2.4 million kilowatt hours of energy and obtain $301,506 in rebates. The Tipp City-based company has generated more than $950,366 in DP&L rebates for its clients since the Channel Partner program was launched in 2009.

"We are honored to be recognized for our work to help our clients make better use of their funds while improving their stewardship of natural resources," said Greg Smith, president of Energy Optimizers, USA. "The majority of our clients are public schools and government agencies, which makes pursuing every cost savings opportunity that much more critical. Every dollar they save through energy efficient measures and DP&L's rebate programs benefits not just their bottom line, but that of their communities, as well."

Smith emphasized that the award reflects a team-based approach to placing the clients' needs first.

"We have an incredibly talented and motivated team of engineers and program managers who are committed to finding innovative ways to help our clients reduce costs while saving the environment," Smith said.

"DP&L Channel Partners are key contributors to the success of our energy efficiency programs," said Tom Tatham, DP&L Director of Strategic Accounts. "We rely on their expertise to educate our business and government customers in making smart efficiency decisions. Energy Optimizers, USA has been very active in the program and we applaud their efforts to help our customers save energy and protect the environment."

Founded in 2009, Energy Optimizers, USA, specializes in helping schools and government agencies identify, finance and implement energy saving projects. The company has helped more than 90 school districts and local government entities free up operational funds by improving energy efficiency and energy conservation. The company also promotes energy conservation education and career development in the energy management field.
