

EPIC adds Southeast Region Employee Benefits Consultant Stephen McKenzie

ATLANTA, Ga., March 28, 2016 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – EPIC Insurance Brokers & Consultants (EPIC), a retail property, casualty insurance brokerage and employee benefits consultant, announced today that Stephen McKenzie has joined the firm's Employee Benefits Consulting team in Atlanta.

Joining as a Benefits Consultant, McKenzie brings 6 years of employee benefits experience to EPIC. He was previously a Benefits Associate at Mercer in Atlanta with a focus on benefits strategy and business development. His expertise in resolving client issues, reviewing internal compliance and contract documents, and conducting financial analyses provided him the opportunity to serve both mid- and large-group employers.

As a consultant for EPIC's Employee Benefits practice in the Southeast, McKenzie will provide client service leadership, including overall strategy, relationship management and business development, bringing new clients to EPIC. His proven success in these areas is well aligned with EPIC's core values of client service excellence and advocacy.

"Stephen has a proven track record of helping his clients succeed," said Steve Needle, Southeast Region Employee Benefits Managing Principal. "He has consulted with a broad range of employers in various industries and on many different types of projects."

McKenzie earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in Risk Management & Insurance from the University of Georgia.

Said McKenzie, "My goal is to provide strategic direction and advice to my clients. I strive to be an outstanding team member who develops and maintains relationships with clients and assists them with the needs of their business. EPIC is uniquely and strongly positioned to help me deliver these results to the people and organizations I serve."
