

EPIC honored as 'Best Place to Work in Orange County' for second consecutive year

IRVINE, Calif., Oct. 1, 2012 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – EPIC (Edgewood Partners Insurance Center), a retail property, casualty and employee benefits insurance brokerage, was recently named as one of the Best Places to Work in the Orange County. Led by managing principals, Dan Ryan and Tony D'Asaro, EPIC's Irvine team has received this honor for the second consecutive year.

"Employee satisfaction is a primary component of our success. Employees who are happy, engaged and challenged are able to deliver the superior level of client service EPIC is committed to providing," said Tony D'Asaro. "We believe this is a significant reason for the rapid growth of our company and loyalty of our clients."

The Best Companies Group administered the confidential survey online and included questions that gauged how happy employees are with their work culture, management practices, benefits and overall compensation. This survey and awards program was designed to identify, recognize and honor the best employers in Orange County, benefiting the county's economy, workforce, and businesses.

"We are pleased and proud to receive this recognition. Seeking out honest feedback from our team is necessary to building a world-class, 'people-first' culture which is unique in our industry," notes Dan Ryan. "This award is an affirmation that our people value the vision set forth at EPIC, of creating a work/life balance and helping each other achieve the excellence every day."

Official rankings of the 2012 Best Places to Work in Orange County will be published in the October 29 issue of the Orange County Business Journal.
