Prior to practicing in Troy, Ohio, Mr. Rieman worked at Bieser, Greer, and Landis in downtown Dayton handling complex civil litigation cases. He also has experience as an assistant prosecuting attorney handling felony criminal cases. Mr. Rieman continues to reside in Greenville, Ohio, his hometown, with his wife Amanda and their two children, soon to be three.

Mr. Rieman is admitted to the bars of the State of Ohio and the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio.

“Michael comes to us with a unique background. With shared time as an assistant prosecutor and defense attorney, he is able to see all angles of a case,” said Steven Justice, General Partner with Dungan & LeFevre. “His extensive litigation experience will be a tremendous asset to the firm and our clients.”

“I am thrilled to be joining Dungan & LeFevre and its elite group of attorneys,” Mr. Rieman said. “I am proud of the work I’ve done at Bieser, Greer, and Landis, and now look forward to providing the highest level of legal services to Dungan and LeFevre’s clients. Working at Dungan and LeFevre will allow me to better serve my friends and neighbors in Darke County.”

Rieman received his J.D. from the University of Notre Dame Law School in 2011, and an undergraduate degree in Business Administration from the Ohio State University. While at Notre Dame, he was elected to the Honor Council and was a member of the Business Law Forum.
