Beech Brook: Helping Families Thrive Since 1852

Beech Brook was founded 170 years ago after a cholera epidemic left many children homeless—and the non-profit continues to help children and their families thrive. Beech Brook’s President and CEO, Thomas Royer says, “We’re committed to delivering on our founders’ mission for today’s most vulnerable children and families, and for generations to come.” Fairport’s Managing Partner, Ken Coleman adds, “Our mission, like Beech Brook’s, is to inspire families, and we are happy to be a part of their anniversary celebration.” Throughout the year, Beech Brook will empower Fairport and Luma Wealth families by providing educational resources about mental health.

Fairport and Luma Wealth: Joining the Mission

CMO, Kristen Lucas says, "Fairport and Luma Wealth team members are eager to support Beech Brook's events throughout the year, including its spring fundraiser, 5k and Family Fun Run, and other volunteer opportunities. And our clients, who share our commitment to support the community, will be invited to join us!" Tom Seifert, an Advisor at Fairport and Luma Wealth, is an avid Beech Brook supporter and has provided leadership on the Board of Directors for over a decade.
