

Firetainment to Unveil New Fire Tables at International Furniture Expo

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 15, 2014 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Firetainment, a leading manufacturer of fire pit tables, will debut three new fire table designs at the 2014 International Casual Furniture & Accessories Market in Chicago, Sept. 16 – 19. These new additions to the Firetainment product line will be on display at trade show booth 7-2019.

The fire pit table manufacturer would reveal little about the announcement of its new product designs, but did disclose that copper would be making a major appearance in the design of one of the new tables. The company's president also confirmed that the new tables would uphold the same level and standard of functionality as the company's current fire table lineup.

Firetainment currently has three, all-season fire tables in its product collection. These multi-purpose tables can be used for outdoor entertaining, hibachi-style cooking and grilling, patio furniture and adding ambiance.

"We wanted to veer from our classic granite top designs and offer fire tables that were completely unique and aesthetically appealing," says Kevin Fulp, President of Firetainment. "Our company is thrilled to unveil the new designs at the upcoming International Casual Furniture & Accessories Market. We have a feeling the attendees will love what they see."

Fulp also said the expanded product line is set to give consumers more options in the way of size, style, and affordability. The company hopes these new options will bring the excitement of "Firetaining" into homes across the country.

The International Casual Furniture & Accessories Market is the only show in North America dedicated to the casual and outdoor furnishings industry that is exclusively endorsed by the International Casual Furnishings Association (ICFA). Firetainment will be joined by approximately 250 other casual outdoor furnishing manufacturers, along with thousands of owners and executives from every type of casual furniture retail store.

Interested retailers and commercial contractors will be able to speak with representatives during the show for more information about distributing and building with Firetainment's new fire tables.
