To qualify for this honor, companies are evaluated by their employees via an anonymous survey that measures employee sentiment about benefits, incentives, professional development initiatives, culture and more. Only companies that earn an 80% or greater employee satisfaction score appear on the Top Mortgage Employer list.

FormFree employees expressed high regard for the company, citing its generous retirement and insurance benefits, incentive stock option, parental leave and regular team building activities as reasons for their satisfaction. Other perks of employment include a $1,500 professional development allowance for each employee and opportunities to participate in company-sponsored charitable initiatives with the Red Cross of Northeast Georgia and Extra Special People, a local charity for individuals with disabilities.

“FormFree fosters a collaborative, innovative work environment,” said FormFree Founder and CEO Brent Chandler. “We stand by our team 100% for their unyielding spirit as they propel our company to the forefront of the digital mortgage revolution.”
