FormFree's event will offer attendees a chance to hear Deitch speak and obtain a signed copy of his newest book, "Strategically Transforming the Mortgage Banking Industry," while networking with industry peers over cocktails and light hors d'oeuvres. All proceeds will benefit the MBA's Opens Doors Foundation, a nonprofit that grants mortgage and rental assistance to parents and guardians with critically ill or injured children.

Deitch, a 25-plus-year mortgage lending veteran, is co-founder and CEO of Lancaster, Pennsylvania-based consulting firm Teraverde Management Advisors. His first book, "Digitally Transforming the Mortgage Banking Industry," was a number-one best seller.

“We see MBA Annual as our opportunity each year to give back to the industry that has done so much for us,” said FormFree Founder and CEO Brent Chandler. “This year, we are thrilled to team up with LexisNexis, LoanBeam, SingleSource and Teraverde to present Jim Deitch, a powerful author whose new book shines a light on the industry’s need for transformation that is not just technologically advanced, but strategically sound – all while raising money for the MBA Opens Doors Foundation.”
