

Geminid Press Announces Screenplay in Development for Acclaimed Science Fiction Conspiracy Thriller ‘Truth Insurrected: The Saint Mary Project’

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M., April 7, 2015 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Geminid Press, LLC, an independent book publisher in Albuquerque, N.M., today announced it has partnered with writer-director Jack Snyder to develop a screenplay for the acclaimed science fiction conspiracy thriller “Truth Insurrected: The Saint Mary Project.” In the suspenseful novel authored by Daniel P. Douglas, readers plunge into a sci-fi storyline featuring former FBI agent William Harrison – a reluctant yet admirable hero – who finds himself hot on the trail of a major extraterrestrial cover-up.

Douglas’s debut science fiction novel has received its share of critical acclaim. Foreword Reviews recently recognized “Truth Insurrected” as a science fiction finalist in its 17th annual INDIEFAB Book of the Year Awards. Winners will be announced in June 2015. Kirkus Reviews described “Truth Insurrected” as “A multigenre espionage tale that’s unquestionably entertaining.”

The Columbia Review of Books & Film highly recommended “Truth Insurrected” and described it as “An excellent science-fiction/conspiracy thriller.” Best Thrillers described the novel as “An engrossing, deftly-crafted UFO conspiracy thriller that is easily one of the most successful tales to emerge out of Roswell alien lore.”

“We are very pleased to partner with Jack Snyder, an award-winning filmmaker who has written, directed, and produced both features and short films,” Geminid Press co-founder, Paul Garver, said. “Jack’s a very talented professional, and given the popularity of the novel’s subject matter, as can be seen in such examples as the pending return of the ‘X-Files’ and a sequel for ‘Independence Day,’ we’re very excited about what the future may hold for a ‘Truth Insurrected’ screenplay.”

The estimated timeframe for completion of the “Truth Insurrected” screenplay is June, 2015. Geminid Press published the science fiction thriller in October, 2014, and it is currently available in Kindle eBook, paperback, and audiobook editions.

About Jack Snyder:

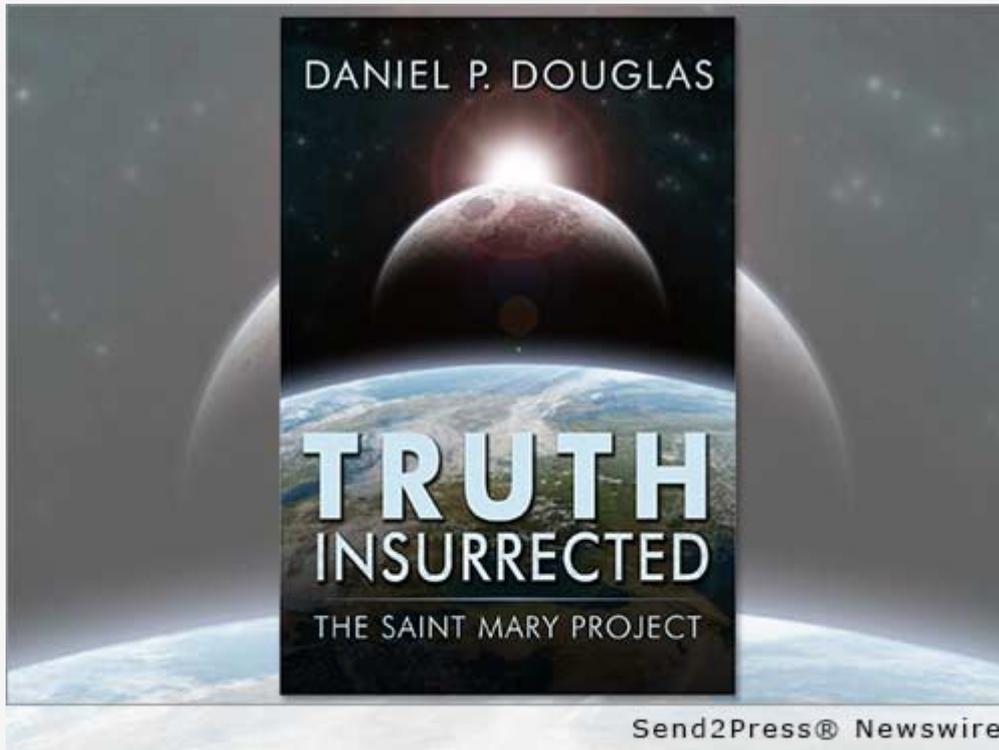

Jack Snyder is an internationally award-winning filmmaker who has written, directed, and produced both features and short films. In 2006, he co-wrote and directed the supernatural thriller, "Ghost Image," starring Elisabeth Rohm ("Law and Order," "Abduction," "American Hustle"), and Stacey Dash ("Clueless"). The film sold to 20th Century Fox and NBC/Universal, has aired on the Showtime Network and The Movie Channel, and is currently available on most digital platforms.

In 2011, Jack wrote, directed, and co-produced an action-thriller titled "Fatal Call," which stars Jason London ("Dazed and Confused," "The Rage: Carrie 2"), Danielle Harris (multiple "Halloween" movies, "The Last Boy Scout"), and Kevin Sorbo ("Hercules," "Andromeda"). The film screened at Cannes in 2012 and was released in Redbox and on VOD through Warner Brothers. It is currently available on most digital platforms. He co-wrote an adaptation of a horror novel by the late writer of "Beetlejuice" and "The Nightmare Before Christmas." That film, titled "Cold Moon," which he co-produced, is currently in post-production. When Jack is not writing screenplays or making movies, he teaches several online media courses at the University of Missouri – St. Louis. Jack and his family currently reside in Los Angeles.
