About Gluten-Free New England:

Since 2016, Connecticut resident Abby Helman Kelly has been organizing expos and delivering content to people like herself seeking the best and safest gluten-free dining, products and services in the region. “The number of people being diagnosed with celiac disease and other food sensitivities is growing so incredibly fast,” she says. “The good news is that the number of local, national, and international businesses working to accommodate them is growing too, and I just love bringing them together. After all, we’re wicked gluten free!”

Gluten-Free New England offers restaurant and product reviews, a dining directory, features, blogs, news, community forums, personal stories, and more. Additional expos are scheduled for 2020 in three locations throughout the region.
