

Highlights of The People's Democratic Movement Public Meeting held in North Caicos

BOTTLE CREEK, North Caicos, April 22, 2016 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – The People's Democratic Movement started their tour around the Islands with a series of public meetings to promote their initiatives. North Caicos was the first island to receive the party and their supporters. The main topics covered on the meeting were crime, security, the 2016 budget and its failings, issues affecting the islands of North and Middle Caicos and our commitment to address them with particular emphasis on employment, travel for healthcare services and their requirement to pay for travel to Provo, the state of their clinics and our commitment to maintain and support a vibrant tourism industry.

Event: North Caicos Public Meeting

Who: The People's Democratic Movement Officials

When: April 13, 2016 7:30 p.m.

Where: King's Road, Bottle Creek, North Caicos.

Hon. Cartwright-Robinson emphasized PDM's compromise with the island, "We (PDM) will spare no efforts to ensure a safe place to live, work and visit." She also stated: "A PDM Government will bring people centered development where our people are active participants and not spectators."

The next Public Meeting will be held on the Island of Providenciales on April 22, 2016 at Times Square, Down Town area. We will continue to set the record straight on what we have been doing for our people, to raise the issues and to outline our priorities as the next Government of these Islands.

The Peoples Democratic Movement "PDM" is the longest functioning Party in the history of the Turks and Caicos Islands having been officially founded in June 1975. Today, it continues to rest on the dreams of its founders which can be summarized in its Party motto: "freedom, justice and equality for all" and it remains the grass root party, "The Peoples' Party."
