Hot Diggity Dog is quick-witted and self-assured, he is also sports minded and loves the children as well as adults. "Hot Diggity Dog reminds us all that it's all right to 'Do The Right Thing!'" the company's VP of marketing, E.L. Williams Jr., says. "Hot Diggity Dog has great mass market appeal, we have been marketing the plush character since 1989, everyone who sees him loves him."

"Dating back to the year 2000, The William Bodenhammer Company obtained the rights to Hot Diggity Dog, allowing the development and distribution of a comic strip, before the venture could get off the ground Mr. Bodenhammer passed away," said Williams.

Over the years the company has had other licensing opportunities but for various reasons decided to forgo them. The company passed on the opportunity allowing Hot Diggity Dog to appear in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. The company President along with the late Tommy Ford ("Martin" TV show) got together and wrote a children's book "Hot Diggity Dogs From A TO Z...Dads Can Too!" which was a friendly reader, coloring and activity book depicting fun activities between children and their dads.

Well the time has now come and the company is ready to actively seek licensing opportunities in various product categories including but not limited to; print, stationary, greeting cards, interactive publishing, television, toys, games and foods.

"Taking into account the popularity of the phrase, coupled with the looks and characteristics of Hot Diggity Dog the character, it won't be long before he is a household name and virtually everyone is saying 'Hot Diggity Dog!' It's The Dog Y'all!" adds Williams.
