

HousingWire Honors Matic as a Top Innovator in Housing Tech for 2018

SHERMAN OAKS, Calif., April 4, 2018 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Matic, a fintech company whose technology enables borrowers to purchase homeowner's insurance during the mortgage transaction, today announced it has been named to HousingWire's 2018 Tech100 list of the most innovative tech providers in the housing industry.

Send2Press® Newswire

Los Angeles-based Matic, which recently announced plans to add 50 jobs to its regional office in Columbus, Ohio, was recognized for its groundbreaking technology that gives loan officers, mortgage servicers and borrowers on-demand access to a digital homeowner's insurance marketplace.

Matic analyzes borrower and property data from the mortgage loan origination system to calculate the amount of coverage needed, then makes more than a dozen A-rated carriers bid on the policy. Securing a policy with Matic takes seconds instead of days, improving the borrower experience and helping lenders close more loans in less time and at a lower cost. Matic also works with real estate portals and mortgage servicers to help their customers find the best policy at a competitive price.

“Matic works with companies across the housing ecosystem – from real estate agents to mortgage originators to mortgage servicers – to transform homeowner’s insurance into an integrated part of the mortgage process,” said Matic CEO Aaron Schiff. “We are honored to be named among HousingWire’s Tech100, which similarly spans the entire housing economy and recognizes the pioneering companies that are ushering in our industry’s future.”

The fifth annual HW Tech100™ recognizes leading innovators in U.S. real estate, mortgage lending, mortgage servicing and investment technology. HousingWire received hundreds of applicants for this year’s program. Of the 100 companies selected by HousingWire, more than half – including Matic – are new to the list in 2018.

“Companies in the 2018 Tech100 represent the leading edge of solutions and services that will propel mortgage companies toward success,” said HousingWire Magazine Editor Sarah Wheeler.
