As an implementation specialist, Means is responsible for guiding new clients through the implementation of IDS' mortgage document software, idsDoc. In her role, she assists by customizing federal, state and lender-specific mortgage documents and making configurations within IDS' in-house software.

With a vast understanding of mortgage documents, Means works every day to provide a high level of customer service. Since last year, Means has led 20 successful implementation projects, onboarding her clients at a highly-efficient pace to provide the best possible experience for the client. During that time, she has also created over 1,000 documents that are used in tens of thousands of mortgage transactions across the country each month and worked on nearly 6,000 help desk tickets with 100% satisfaction feedback.

“Katie’s expertise and drive is invaluable to the IDS organization, which has been proven by her strong ability to lead large projects and mentor team members,” said Travis Carroll, IDS Director of Implementation Services. “She is definitely a rock star in the residential mortgage space, and I look forward to her continued career growth and success.”

The 2021 HousingWire Insiders were carefully selected by HousingWire’s selection committee based on their vital and dynamic contributions to their companies and the industry as a whole. The Insiders are the professionals their companies turn to with their most important or challenging behind-the-scenes projects, and their contributions and hard work lead to superior results.

“The winners of our Insiders award are an incredible group of doers that we’re proud to recognize for their essential contributions to their companies and the larger mortgage and real estate ecosystem,” HousingWire Editor and Chief Sarah Wheeler said. “Everyone on this year’s list is a crucial part of their company’s success and we’re honored to give them the spotlight.”
