

IDS Named Finalist for Lenders' Choice Mortgage Technology Award

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Oct. 4, 2012 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – International Document Services (IDS), a mortgage document preparation vendor, announced it has been named a 2012 finalist for the Mortgage Technology Lenders' Choice Award.

The Lenders' Choice Mortgage Technology Award, sponsored by SourceMedia's Mortgage Technology Magazine, recognizes the technology provider that offers the best customer service, value proposition and overall user experience. The winner is selected by the lenders and servicers who are named to the Top Tech-Savvy Lenders and Servicers list, which was published in the September 2012 issue of Mortgage Technology magazine.

The winner will be revealed at the 13th Annual Mortgage Technology Awards Ceremony on Sunday Oct. 21 at 7:30 p.m. CDT at the Hyatt Regency in Chicago.

"By having the 2012 Top Tech-Savvy Lenders and Servicers vote for the finalists and winner of the new Lenders' Choice Award, some of the best users of mortgage technology get the opportunity to acknowledge the vendors that provide them with exceptional products and services," said Austin Kilgore, managing editor of Mortgage Technology.

"At IDS, we strive to create 'raving fans' through our continuous improvement of idsDoc and our exceptional customer service so we're beyond thrilled that our clients on the 'Top Tech-Savvy Lenders' list nominated us as finalists for this award," said IDS Executive Vice President Mark Mackey. "It's an honor to be recognized in the same company with mortgage industry all-stars like Xerox and QuestSoft, and we wish all the finalists the best of luck at this year's Mortgage Technology Awards."
