

Jallo Oil Distributors' President is Major Benefactor for Soon to Be Released Documentary on Christian Persecution

TAMPA, Fla., March 27, 2018 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) -- Patrick Carberry, founder Joshuacord, Inc., has teamed up with In Altum Productions, film director Jordan Allott, and Paul Jallo, president, Jallo Oil Distributors, to produce a much-needed documentary that addresses the plight of Christian persecution in the Middle East and Africa. Joshuacord is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization developed to help people persecuted for their Christian faith.

Send2Press® Newswire

"I started Joshuacord six years ago with a yearly 5K run in Tampa to bring awareness to the ongoing plight of persecuted Christians," says Carberry. "'Christians in the Mirror,' a soon-to-be-released documentary, is just one more way to communicate our mission. Edmund Burke, an Irish statesman once said, 'Evil prevails when good men do nothing,' so we're taking those words to heart and trying to help however we can."

“Christians in the Mirror” is scheduled to be released this summer. Their goal is to reach more than 350,000 churches throughout the United States and it’s the hope of the documentary’s producers and directors that these churches will share it with people who will share it with people and so on and so on.

A Go Fund Me campaign has also been launched to help with the video’s distribution.

Paul first met Patrick about one year ago and the two hit it off instantly. “We really connected. We both have the goal of making a difference to raise awareness about Christians being persecuted for their faith,” Jallo says.

Having been born and raised in the Middle East, Jallo knows first-hand how people who are Jesus followers are treated.

“When I met Patrick and learned about his organization and film project, I was quick to get involved. The film shows real stories of Christian persecution and we can make a difference in this struggle that kills Christians for their faith. God has given me more than I deserve and I want to pay it forward,” Jallo says.

It’s the hope of the film’s executive team that “Christians in the Mirror” will activate Christians across America to stand united to help those under persecution for their faith.

“Paul is a good man with a kind heart who is concerned about justice and religious freedom. He understands that the documentary is about God-given human rights and religious freedom,” Carberry says.

“Christians in the Mirror” includes interviews with religious leaders and persecuted Christians in Syria, India, Iraq, South Sudan and Egypt. Ultimately, it’s a wake-up call for people to help.

“We want our Christian brothers and sisters in the Middle East and Africa to know that they’re not alone and to encourage all who believe in human rights, religious freedom and freedom of conscience to step up and speak out,” Jallo says.

Watch the documentary trailer here: <https://vimeo.com/243393463>

GoFundMe Page for “Christians in the Mirror” –
<https://www.gofundme.com/8addb-christians-in-the-mirror-film>

Joshuacord, Inc.: <https://www.joshuacord.org/>

Christians in the Mirror official site: <http://christiansinthemirror.com/>

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/joshuacord1.9>

Twitter: https://twitter.com/joshua\_cord

Jallo Oil: <https://www.facebook.com/jallooildist/>

In Altum Productions: <http://www.inaltumproductions.com/>

*IMAGE for Media: Send2Press.com/300dpi/18-0327s2p-christians-mirror-300dpi.jpg

*Image Caption: Preliminary logo artwork for "Christians in the Mirror."