When asked about businesses who make the Inc., 5000, James Ledbetter, Inc.'s editor-in-chief said, "If your company is on the Inc. 5000, its unparalleled recognition of your years of hard work and sacrifice. The lines of business may come and go, or come and stay. What doesn't change is the way entrepreneurs create and accelerate the forces that shape our lives.”

“We’re excited to be one of the fastest-growing companies in the U.S. and are confident we’ll continue to grow,” Domenic Mangano, owner, Jamaica Cottage Shop, says.

A Vermont-based retailer of prefab buildings, plans and kits, with customers throughout the U.S. and parts of Canada, the Jamaica Cottage Company manufactures and sells kits from native rough sawn Vermont post and beam timber frame for tiny houses, cottages, cabins and sheds.
