In his role within the Financial Services division, Kennedy will be dedicated to the private equity space. He brings a strong background in private equity and mergers and acquisitions work including due diligence, transactional services, advisory, and placement. His experience and network will be invaluable to the organization as he becomes a part of the team and begins to collaborate with national teams within EPIC as well as partner firms. Kennedy will be based in Birmingham, Alabama and New York, New York but will work with all of EPIC's national teams in the financial services space.

"I could not be more thrilled to have James joining our Financial Services team. I look forward to leveraging his expertise and his network as we continue to build upon our capabilities in the financial services and private equity space," said Philip Moyles, President, Financial Services and Chief Growth Officer.

Adam Meyerowitz, President, Southeast/Midwest Region, agreed, "We couldn't be more excited to have James join our team and further expand our capabilities in the region. There are many opportunities ahead for success with him onboard."
