Send2Press® Newswire

Ferber will be based in Frenkel's New York, N.Y. office at 350 Hudson Street and report to Phil Remig, Northeast Region Senior Vice President, Operations and Sales.

Ferber will be responsible for new business development; management of property/casualty insurance programs; and providing risk management strategies and solutions to mid-market and large clients across a range of industries, including financial institutions, manufacturing & distribution, and commercial & habitational real estate.

Ferber joins from the New York office of Marsh & McLennan Agency, where he was an Executive Risk Strategist.

"We are excited to further expand and enhance our operations in the greater

New York City area and across the Northeast with Joe's addition," said Phil Remig. "He is highly regarded for his professional knowledge; for building strong, positive relationships; and for providing exceptional service to his clients. Joe will be a terrific addition as we continue to deepen and strengthen our exceptional team both regionally and across the country."

Ferber attended Rider University in Lawrence Township, New Jersey, where he earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Finance & Economics. While at Rider Ferber was also a member of the University's Division 1 Men's Wrestling Team and was recognized as part of Omicron Delta Epsilon (the International Honor Society of Economics)
