

Journey Through Hallowed Ground Partnership to feature Garden Debut The Rising Sun Redbud PP21451

PARK HILL, Okla., June 24, 2014 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Two hundred The Rising Sun™ Redbuds PP21451, from Greenleaf Nursery and Garden Debut®, are to be planted in the Journey Through Hallowed Ground Living Legacy Tree Planting Project. The Journey Through Hallowed Ground Partnership will host a Living Legacy Tree Planting Project ceremony on Sunday, June 29 at 2:30 p.m., at Oatlands Historic House and Gardens in Leesburg, Va., to commemorate the 150th anniversary of the American Civil War.

Through the Living Legacy Tree Planting Project, one tree will be planted for each of the 620,000 soldiers who died during one of the most defining moments in American history. Upon completion, the Living Legacy Project will create the first 180-mile landscaped allee in the world and the only allee dedicated to memorializing the American Civil War.

The Rising Sun™ Redbud PP21451, discovered by breeder Ray Jackson of Belvidere, Tennessee, is a Great New Plant™ from the Garden Debut® plant collection that features brilliant, golden tangerine colored new growth and lime green, heart-shaped foliage all summer with no burning, even in full sun, and dark lavender blooms appear before the foliage in early spring. This vigorous grower reaches 8 to 12 feet tall with an equal spread. It will make a striking addition to the Living Legacy Project allee for visitors to enjoy for years to come.

Contact Greenleaf Nursery Company for an availability of Great New Plants™ and Trusted Selections™ from the Garden Debut® plant collection.
